C2 Common Measures

Self-Efficacy

Healthy decision-making

Youth -adult connectedness

Measuring Self-Efficacy

1. I can always manage to solve difficult problems if I try hard enough.
2. If someone opposes me, I can find the means and ways to get what I want.
3. It is easy for me to stick to my aims and accomplish my goals.
4. I am confident that I could deal efficiently with unexpected events.
5. Thanks to my resourcefulness, I know how to handle unforeseen situations.
6. I can solve most problems if I invest the necessary effort.
7. I can remain calm when facing difficulties because I can rely on my coping abilities.
8. When I am confronted with a problem, I can usually find several solutions.
9. If I am in trouble, I can usually think of a solution.
10. I can usually handle whatever comes my way

Measuring Healthy Decisions

1. You can say no to activities that you think are wrong.
2. You can identify the positive and negative consequences of behavior.
3. You try to make sure that everyone in a group is treated fairly.
4. You think you should work to get something, if you really want it.
5. You make decisions to help you achieve your goals.
6. You know how to organize your time to get all your work done.

Measuring Y-A Connectedness

1. At least one of your [program leaders] would help you if you had a problem or were upset.
2. There is a clear set of rules for youth to follow.
3. You know at least one adult you could talk with about personal problems.
4. You want to do well at this [program].
5. There is an adult at this [program] who is concerned about your well-being.
6. You know adults who encourage you often.
7. Most of the adults you know are good role models for you.
